The San Antonio Writing Project

Summer Invitational Institute is designed for experienced teachers across all academic disciplines from kindergarten through university level academics.

The Summer Institute is an opportunity for professional growth and development, demonstration of best practices, study of theory, and personal growth through writing.

Benefits of Participating

- 6 hours of graduate credit from the University of Texas at San Antonio. Fellowship from SAWP covers 50% of cost.
- Opportunities for rewarding and challenging growth through professional development
- The chance to write and learn with other excellent teachers from a diverse background
- After completing the Summer Institute, you become a "Teaching Consultant" for SAWP, able to do in-service for schools in the San Antonio area
