

SAWP

San Antonio Writing Project

Showcasing Writing Across the Curriculum

February 3, 2007

8:30 AM-12:30 PM

in Room 1.406 at the Frio Street Building

UTSA Downtown Campus

Keynote Address: Gretchen Bernabei

Author of Why We Must Run with Scissors: Voice Lessons in Persuasive Writing, and Reviving the Essay: How to Teach Structure without Formula.

“Teachers Teaching Teachers”

For Teachers:

You will experience presentations by San Antonio Writing Project Teacher Consultants who will provide you with a variety of innovative ideas for incorporating writing into your classroom.

Three PDC credits will be offered. Cost for the event is free.

To register, call the number below. For more information about the morning program, visit our website

<http://www.sanantoniowritingproject.org>

call (210) 458-5427

San Antonio Writing Project

First Annual Conference- February 3rd

Please fill out this form and mail to attend the first annual SAWP conference on February 3rd, 2007. There is no cost for the conference, but your registration will help us in planning for this event.

Mailing Address:

Dr. Roxanne Henkin, Director of the San Antonio Writing Project
University of Texas at San Antonio
207 Northcrest
San Antonio, TX 78213

Email: Katharine.duckworth@utsa.edu (SAWP assistant)
For questions contact Judi Berridge, Conference Chair
Email: berridge@randolph-field.k12.tx.us

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone number: _____