

Writing Matters

An Open Institute on Writing Across the Curriculum

The San Antonio Writing Project Open Institute will engage teachers in the essentials of teaching writing. Topics covered by the institute include the writing process; writing workshop; write to learn; teacher-student conferencing; integrating writing, reading, and content areas; and evaluating writing.

We will focus on our own writing, share our writing, and look at relevant research. We will also participate in teaching demonstrations of successful writing lessons used in the classroom (presented by Teacher Consultants of the San Antonio Writing Project).

This Open Institute is sponsored by the Curriculum and Instruction Department of the Southside Independent School District.

When:

July 28- Aug. 1
8:30 AM – 3:30 PM

Where:

Freedom Elementary
3845 S Loop 1604 E

Who Should Attend:

The Open Institute is available to any teacher K-12 in all disciplines who teach in the Southside ISD, Harlandale ISD, and East Central ISD.

Costs:

The Institute is free for Southside, East Central, and Harlandale teachers.

Benefits:

Teachers will receive a professional book and 30 CPE hours.

How to Sign Up:

Register through the Summer Professional Academy at www.harlandale.net For more information contact thomasina.montana@southside.k12.tx.us

The San Antonio Writing Project is the local affiliate of the National Writing Project, hosted by the University of Texas at San Antonio. NWP values the improvement of writing in all schools in the United States and operates upon the philosophy of teachers teaching teachers. For more information about SAWP, visit <http://www.sanantoniowritingproject.org>